Nancy Wynne Tells of the Sunnybrook Gun Club Meet Today—She Talks of the Hindman-Vogels Engagement—Others Matters Discussed

THE Sunnybrook Gun Club is to have its second meet today at the Isaac Clothier estate, Sunnybrook Farm, in Radnor. Have you ever been to the Clothier's house out there? It's a beautiful place, the grounds are simply wonderful and the younger set just love the shooting meets that the Sunnybrook Gun Club has organized there.

The members of said club have to be under twenty-one years of age, and the last meet, as well as the boys, and they did some fine shooting, too, let me tell you. They have a good eye, though not as strong a hold on the rifle.

Before the shoot, there will be a luncheon at the Clothier's home and there will be from fifty to a hundred spectators.

THAT'S a nice engagement of Eleanor Vogels and Walter Hindman! Eleanor is the daughter of the late Mr. Edward Page Vogels and Mrs. Vogels, she and her mother and brother, David, live at 2422 Spruce street. Walter Hindman comes from Indiana. He has often visited here and is quite well known in the younger set. Eleanor's mother was Miss Frances Sel. Eleanor is a daughter of Mrs. David Sellers and a sister of Mrs. Lawrence T. Paul, Mrs. Granville Vorell and Mr. Ned Sellers, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hindman, who are occupying their summer home in Parkland, entertained a house party over the week-end. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. William S. Duffield, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Preston.
